CLUB NOTES

Our Visitors to-day, Middlesbrough, have got off to an excellent start and at the time of writing are lying second in the table with nine points and a very convincing goal average. A long established Club, their formation took place on the 18th February, 1876, and on January 26th, 1878, when gates were first recorded they had an attendance of 150 against a Tyne Association Team. Since then, of course, they have had their periods of success and failure, but the Club have become famous throughout the years for their tradition of Football rather than their achievements. In common with most other League Clubs they have a strong Development Association and the provision of a Social Club at the Ground is now proceeding.

After North End's excellent 5-4 win at Southampton on Saturday last, the draw with Plymouth on Monday was rather a disappointing result. Still, in view of the injured players we had out of action for these two games, three points from four was a very satisfactory return. A depleted Reserve Team did quite well in drawing 1-1 with Newcastle United Reserves, our "A" Team lost at Blackpool by 2-1 and the "B" Team had an excellent result with Blackpool "B" winning 7-1.

Alex Dawson has got off to a good start in the goalscoring chart, having scored seven goals in six games to date. If he continues in this vein, he should finish with quite a respectable total.

Newcomers to the Second Division, Swindon Town have had a remarkable start to the Season with a maximum of 12 points and scoring 17 goals against 4.

Another of our awkward away trips is to be made by air. That is the one to Norwich on the 2nd October. This will enable us to go there and back in the one day, which is a great advantage.

In June of 1964, long service player Willie Cunningham will be due for his third Benefit with the Club. Under a recent change in Football League Regulations, the Club are now able to give permission for a Testimonial Match to be staged in lieu of a benefit. Accordingly this has been arranged for Monday night, the 21st October, 1963, kick-off, 7-30 p.m. The intention is to stage a game between Ex Preston North End players and an Invited XI of well-known Northern Football personalities, past and present. If the Match provides the entertainment that Tom Finney's Match at Deepdale did in September, 1960, it should be an occasion to remember, seeing that the following will be invited to take part, along with Willie Cunningham himself, of course. Tom Finney, Tommy Thompson, Jimmy Baxter, Tommy Docherty, Brian Douglas, Fred Else, Alex Parker, Bobby Johnstone, Alan Acourt, Jimmy McIlroy, Bob Wilson, Bert Trautman, Nat Lofthouse, Stan Mortensen, Ken Barnes, Sid Owen, Billy Liddell, Jimmy Adamson, Joe Dunn and Joe Walton. Many of these players have already expressed their willingness to assist Willie Cunningham and there should be little doubt about the few not confirmed as yet.

We feel sure that there will be a ready response in Preston and District to make the game a huge success for one who has been such a loyal servant to the Club in both times of success and disappointment.

Tickets will be issued in advance for all parts and an announcement will be made as soon as available. Prices of admission will be — Ground 2/6 (Juveniles 1/-), Paddocks 3/- (Juveniles 1/6), West Stand 5/-, South Pavilion 6/-, and Pavilion Stand 8/6. Probable teams will be announced in this Programme in the near future.

For the time being then, there are two jackpots for you to win ! The bingo sessions start at 8-30 p.m. every Friday and last approximately 45 minutes.

CLUB MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE : The nucleus of a Club Management Committee to run the new Club Premises, when completed, has already been formed. It consists of Mr. T. Hodgson as Chairman, Mr. W. TRAVELLING : Newcastle United v. North End, on Saturday, 21st September, St. James' Park has been a happy hunting ground for North End for a number of seasons past and always proves to be a popular trip. The coach will leave Starchhouse Square, at 8-30 a.m., and should be back in Preston again before 10-0 p.m. The total cost, to include a meal after the game, is 22/6.

Derby County v. North End, on October 5th — usually another popular trip and with County doing well this season a good match seems to be guaranteed. The coach will leave at 9-0 a.m., and the total cost, to include a meal at Ashbourne on the return journey, is 18/6.

Facilities for booking are available in the Press Room (Pavilion Stand) after to-day's game, and at every club night. Provisional bookings may be made by telephone with the Travel Secretary, Mr. J. A. Dodd, at Preston 3669 (Monday to Friday) or in the evening at Nelson 63425.
